Farmingville, NY - Councilman Kevin LaValle has announced that he will hold a free, Tax Grievance Seminar on Thursday, April 24 at the Farmingville Fire Department. Joining Councilman LaValle will be the Town's Tax Assessor, James Ryan, who will help residents learn how to grieve their property tax assessment. The Tax Grievance seminar starts at 6:00 pm.

"During these tough economic times, every dollar counts," said Councilman LaValle. "I encourage residents to attend the seminar. It will help them understand the process so they can successfully grieve their taxes and keep more of their own money," said Councilman LaValle.

The Farmingville Fire Department is located at 780 Horseblock Road in Farmingville.
